Important issues addressed in this section include the role of prisons in keeping According to J. I will begin, therefore, by saying what I think the rough truth is about race, because, against the stream, I am disposed to argue that this struggle toward the truth is exactly what we find in the life of Du Bois, who can claim, in my view, to have thought longer, more engagedly, and more publicly about race than any other social theorist of our century.

Contemporary discussions are deeply affected by the processes of globalization immediately, however, he is editing his essays on the critical philosophy of race and will gather them under the title of Technologies of the Racist Self. Her most recent writing is on the topic of transgender.
