Although his earliest writings were literary and theatrical reviews, Buber's major interest was the tension between society and community. Steiner could just as well have written Mein Rudi-freies Leben (German Edition) thinking or "Catholic" thinking, because, from the perspective of his radically enlightened standpoint, all three schools of thought have the same character insofar as they give up their innate emancipatory elements in favour of normative or collectivist moral ideals. And the decomposition is shown most clearly by the fact that these kindergartens on the other hand have become a necessary part of the deadening life of our large cities.

In debates following violent riots in and 29 on whether to arm the Jewish settlers in Palestine Buber represented the pacifist option; in debates on immigration quotas following the Arab boycott Buber argued for demographic parity rather than trying to achieve a Jewish majority. In St Paul, Steiner saw the man who overcame obedience to external Law and liberated the human individuality. Cologne was a religious and intellectual center during the Middle Ages. It started later in other parts of Europe, but went further than in Germany. Sh tend to be more expensive than U. Following Klatzkin's and Laqueur's reflections on Jewish intelligence, we now intend to deal with a remark of Steiner's from which some authors have taken as an indication of Steiner's "resentment against Jews".
