In this point Charron clearly contradicts Montaigne [49]. The Foundation's principal office is located at Melan Dr. The Jesuit Juande Marianastated in that there should only be one religion in the world. I should paint the school with the pictures of joy and gladness; Flora and the Graces, as the philosopher Speusippus did. And also 'tis the general opinion of all, that a child should not be brought up in his mother's lap. It will be necessary that he imbibe their knowledge, not that he be corrupted with their precepts; and no matter if he forget where he had his learning, provided he know how to apply it to his own use.

This etymology is insignificant, as it points toward the experimental nature of Charron et Montaigne's work. On the one hand this shows that the intention and the solution of legal reasoning is due to, or biased by, the political objectives of the day.
