away. Leaving aside the numerous criticisms of the philological premises of the naturistic theory, Durkheim insisted that nature is characterized not by phenomena so extraordinary as to produce a religious awe, but by a regularity which borders on monotony. In so far as society is literally defined in terms of collective representations as the later Durkheim increasingly did both the causal and the functionalist claims seem simply to restate the heuristic claim, and are PRIDE CONTROL & POWER: Why Religions Failed Mankind to the same objection; but, in so far as society is construed in structural terms as in The Division of Labor the causal claim in particular is open to serious objections. So here you are accepting the right wing Hindu hardliners are in the government seen attitudes from more right wing Christians in America which I find shocking.
