These passages encompassed childhood memories, teenage angst and an inflamed prostate gland. These are the reasons to read the book. However, beyond the bluster of the dominant front-man, it became apparent that intriguing things were happening elsewhere on the stage.

It's fast-paced, it's smartly written, it's got a love story that leaves you You go, Mira! I really liked Jesse, he is a very sweet, under-valued and mysterious protagonist. What I liked-ExtraNormal is completely unique.
