For his part he will propose two solutions to the basic problem, one time-bound, the other transcending time. SW I, This view, which ranks the different genres of painting in a hierarchical system, is also endorsed by other figures in the story and is based on the assumption that work produced by an artist who has the technical skill to copy Nature and reproduce form with the help of mathematical calculations is somehow inferior to that produced by an artist who is inspired by his imagination and creativity – his genius. Hoffmann is often seen as a deeply divided character who is torn between the claims of the material world of reality and the realm of the imagination.

It is my intention to extend the scope of my research to these works in a future work. He has certainly raised some pretty intractable practical problems about collaboration, which Ludwig has blithely ignored. Let me show you around 9 von 26 Where are we now?
