The only settlement on it that was more than an agglomeration of cabins was at Roundstone, where the engineer Alexander Nimmo had built a harbour in and laid out a neat village, which had flourished for a few years with the herring fishery and then had fallen into decline. Bythe Hodgsons, Henry and Dudley, had held on to their estate and the islands in Lough Corrib in the rural district of Oughterard. DrJamesMackay.Villages of Britain. Estelle Ross.
