Southern black women also sought to redefine their public and private lives. He considers the justification for war, the defeat of the Confederate States, and the political environment after the war. He saw action at Vicksburg several times. Forwhom? I did not think it prudent, however, to go into to the town until near night, and wandered slowly along the banks of the river Mississippi. It healed. This affair was known as Murrell's Insurrection, and happened, as well as I can remember, in the year
