This is a good biography of Warren Buffett, but it could have been better. Nevertheless I did learn a lot from the book. Howardgotdoneinhispoliticallife.Kidshavetodochorestogettheirallow
On page 17, she describes the "notoriously fumble fingered Buffett" trying to "get up" a PowerPoint slide as if it were an actual slide Making mistakes is no problem. Login with Facebook Login with Google.
It didn't make me like Warren more clearly that wasn't the point but it was an important primary and ultimately defining characteristic of an entrepreneur like Oprah or Jobs is a deep sense of responsibility to humanity.
